

Cookie Policy

Last updated: 30 September 2026

Winsor Skills Training uses cookies and similar technologies on our website, mywst.org.uk. This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them and how you can manage your preferences.

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They allow websites to recognise your device and can help websites function correctly, remember preferences and understand how visitors use the website.

Cookies may be either session cookies, which are deleted when you close your browser, or persistent cookies, which remain on your device for a set period of time.

2. How we use cookies

We use cookies and similar technologies for purposes including:

- Ensuring that our website functions correctly and securely.
- Remembering certain preferences and settings.
- Understanding how visitors interact with our website.
- Improving the performance and usability of our website.
- Supporting website features and services provided by WordPress.com and other service providers.

Some cookies are essential for the website to operate and cannot be switched off through our cookie preferences. Other cookies may be used only where appropriate consent has been provided.

3. Essential cookies

Essential cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They may support functions such as website security, navigation, page functionality and the operation of WordPress.com services.

Because these cookies are necessary for the operation of the website, they may be used without consent where permitted by applicable law.

4. Analytics and non-essential cookies

Where we use analytics or other non-essential cookies, these cookies may collect information about how visitors use our website, such as the pages visited, approximate usage patterns and website performance.

We will seek consent before using non-essential cookies where consent is required by applicable UK law.

5. Managing your cookie preferences

When you first visit our website, you may be presented with a cookie notice allowing you to manage your cookie preferences.

You can also manage or delete cookies through your web browser settings. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality or performance of parts of the website.

6. Third-party services

Our website is hosted using WordPress.com and may use services provided by WordPress.com and other third-party providers. These services may use cookies or similar technologies to provide website functionality, security, analytics or other services.

Third-party services may have their own privacy and cookie policies, and we recommend reviewing those policies where appropriate.

7. Changes to this Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes to the cookies and technologies used on our website or changes in applicable legal requirements.

Any changes will be published on this page and the “Last updated” date will be amended accordingly.

8. Contact us
